

Belleville and Quinte West Community Health Centre Preventive Care Program Referral

Preventative care is a proactive approach that focuses on preventing illness and disease rather than treating them after they occur. Catching diseases early increases treatment success rates.
The Prevention Outreach Worker is open to those without a family doctor or nurse practitioner in the Belleville and Quinte West areas, working together to create a personalized preventive care plan.

REFERRED BY
Name:		Agency/Org.:
Phone #:		Fax #:
Date of Referral (dd/mm/yyyy):

INDIVIDUAL INFORMATION
Name:		Phone #:
DOB (dd/mm/yyyy):		Health Card #:
Address:
Alternate Contact:		Phone #:

PREVENTION SERVICES AND SUPPORTS (check all that apply)
Social services/support (e.g. Access to food, housing, income, legal, transportation and other supports addressing social determinants of health)	<input type="checkbox"/> Comments:
Access to primary Care (e.g. family physicians or nurse practitioners)	<input type="checkbox"/> Comments:
Learn about cancer, cancer screening and/or risk factors	<input type="checkbox"/> Comments:
Participate in cancer screening service (e.g. support booking, or accessing mammography, FIT and cervical screening)	<input type="checkbox"/> Comments:
Access to prediabetes or type 2 diabetes prevention, screening and management	<input type="checkbox"/> Comments:
Learn about or undertake health behaviour change (e.g. chronic disease risk factors and health behaviours including eating, substance use [including alcohol and commercial tobacco], movement, sleep, stress management and other health behaviors)	<input type="checkbox"/> Comments:
Other	<input type="checkbox"/>

OTHER RELEVANT INFORMATION
Relevant information attached (medical history, etc.)?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No

Consent
Individual aware of referral?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No